

CT Training Course for 2024

37.25 CEs* 94% Board Pass Rate

About this course:

Take the first step to becoming a CT Technologist! This intensive boot camp covers basic to advanced imaging to prepare for the ARRT CT Exam. It is appropriate for technologists with no previous experience as well as those who have worked in CT without extensive formal training. This course provides 16 hours of structured education required by the ARRT for certification and registration. It's also an excellent preparation for success on the board exam.
