

Navigating Breast Imaging: A 2-Day Workshop for Healthcare Professionals

May 3-4, 2025 | Live Webinar Course

About this course:

Advance your role in patient care with this immersive two-day course on breast health imaging navigation. Designed for imaging technologists and nurses, this course equips you with the skills, confidence, and knowledge to excel as a breast cancer navigator. Through interactive training and real-world practice, you'll gain the expertise to guide patients through their healthcare journey with clarity, compassion, and confidence.

- ✓ Interactive Case Studies
- ✓ Breast Pathology Review
- ✓ Practice Sessions

Topics Covered Include:

- Breast Navigation Basics
 - Definition, history, barriers, and structure
- Breast Cancer & Risk
 - Stats, risk factors, assessment models, and prevention
- Breast Health & Cancer
 - Anatomy, benign conditions, high-risk findings, and cancer types
- Imaging & Diagnosis
 - Mammography, CEM, ultrasound, MRI, and pathology basics
- Treatment Options
 - Surgery, radiation, chemotherapy, hormone therapy, and integrative care
- Navigator Role
 - Duties, workflows, case studies, and delivering pathology results
- Certification & Career Path
 - Who should navigate and how to get certified
- Why Navigation Matters
 - Impact on patient care and comprehensive breast programs

Save Your Spot Today!

2-Day Workshop Tuition Starts at $449.

*ASRT Category A Credit™ Nursing CBRN Credits™